

What would seem to be the first fascicule of a pocket atlas for children was published in 1801, but it is not known whether further ones were issued. The author was Johann Gottfried Grohmann and it measured 100 x 125 mm. This part contains an engraved frontispiece, title-page and only three hand coloured maps of the World in hemispheres, Europe and Asia, about 105 x 75 mm:

Kleine Welt-Karte; Karte von Europa; Karte von Asien.

These are followed by thirty two pages of text relating to the maps. They may just possibly have been drawn by Berggold and engraved by Scheffner, whose signatures appear on the frontispiece.

Taschenatlas zum gebrauch für kinder: begleitet mit einer gedrängten anleitung zur länderkunde von Professor Grohmann. Leipzig, Schreiber's Heirs, 1801.
