Jean Lattré

Louis Denis' atlas of Paris in the Géographie des dames (see 1762a) seems to have inspired Jean Lattré to engrave and publish his own version with an attractive engraved title-page by Pierre Philippe Choffard. This tiny work, 110 x 60 mm., also has twenty five double page plates and is usually found with full hand-colour. There is a plain index map and twenty four numbered sectional plans with decorated borders about 85 x 95 mm.

Atlas topographique des environs de Paris. Paris, Jean Lattré, (1764).
