

National Library of Scotland

A little book with soft covers, 150 x 118 mm. in size and published by James Mitchell & Co., Engravers of Glasgow, contains some advertising and just nine single-page maps with outline colour:

World; England; Scotland; Ireland; Europe; Asia; Africa; America; Palestine.

They measure about 104 x 73 mm. to the neat line and also have pictorial borders consisting of a dozen attractive vignettes, with their titles incorporated into the centre top. There is an imprint at the foot with 'Drawn & Engraved by' at the left side and 'James Mitchell & Co.' at the right.

This work is rare and undated but there is a copy in the National Library of Scotland and its catalogue indicates publication about 1860.

Illustrated miniature atlas. Glasgow, James Mitchell & Co., (1860).
